MRS. HARVEY DEAN GROOME
the former Miss Linda Sue Williams

Vows Exchanged

Miss Linda Sue Williams and Mr. Harvey Dean Groome were married on December 28th at 7 p.m. in a double ring ceremony at the West Lynchburg Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Williams, Jr. of Lynchburg and the grand daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis S. McCormick, Sr. of Appomattox and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Williams, Sr. of Lynchburg. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lipscomb Groome of Portsmouth, Virginia.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The officiating pastor was Rev. Paul Brunner, pastor of West Lynchburg Baptist Church. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Karen Gough of Lynchburg who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song". Mrs. Franklin Vaughan of Spout Spring served as organist.

The bride wore a full length gown which she designed and her aunt, Mrs. James Ferguson styled. The gown of white peau de soir and white lace was of Victorian Style with white pearl trim and long sheer lace sleeves ending with fingertip points of lace and pearl buttons. The Empire bodice was complimented with appliques of scalloped lace as was the chapel train which fell from the back of the bodice. She wore a fingertip veil of white illusion and a juliet cap covered with lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Byron McCoy, sister of the bride, and Miss Julie Williams, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Benton of Springfield, Virginia and Miss Diane Cannon of Virginia Beach, Virginia. The matron of honor, maid of honor and bridesmaids wore emerald green velvet gowns styled like the bride's gown with white lace trim and wore gold sandals. They carried bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations to match their gowns.

The flower girl, wearing a long yellow and green dress was Patricia McCoy, niece of the bride and the ringbearer was Master Alan McCoy, nephew of the bride. The ringbearer wore a green velvet suit with a white shirt.

Mr. Harvey Groome was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Bryan Alan McCoy, brother-in-law of the bride and Mr. Sam Johnson of Prospect, Virginia. Junior ushers were Kin Williams, brother of the bride and Michael Cassidy, cousin of the bride. The ushers wore black tuxedoes with a yellow carnation in the lapel.

Following the cermony the parents of the bride were hosts for a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Serving as hostesses were: Mrs. Newell Sanders of Lynchburg, Miss Alene Jewett of Blacksburg, Mrs. Kenneth Clay and Miss Lynn Cassidy both of Lynchburg.

The bride is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School, attended Radford College and is a graduate of VPI&SU in Blacksburg, where she received a BS degree in sociology. She is now a Spanish teacher at Dunbar High School in Lynchburg.

The groom is a December graduate of Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia. He received a BS degree in Psychology and plans to work in the area of guidance and counseling.

After a wedding trip the couple will live in Lynchburg.

GREETINGS for the New Year

Woman's Club Takes Gifts To Boys Home

The hearts of twenty-eight boys at Patrick Henry Boys Plantation near Brookneal were gladdened on Christmas morning when approximately 60 gifts from members of the Appomattox Woman's Club were delivered. Along with the gifts, some money was given which helped enable a few of the boys living at the Boys Plantation to spend Christmas at their homes.

Mrs. Frances Hill, Chairman of the Juvenile for Justice Committee; Mrs. H. Webster Babcock, President of the club; and Mrs. Nettie Dresser Martin delivered the gifts and toured the new cottage at the home.

When the new cottage is opened, Patrick Henry Boys Plantation will be able to offer homes to ten more boys but this cannot be done furnishings are acquired and money is raised for the funding of a staff for the cottage.

Helping out at Patrick Henry Boys Plantation is just one of the many worthy projects sponsored by the Appomattox Woman's Club.

Sherwill 4-H Club Went Caroling

Last Monday evening the Sherwill 4-H Club went caroling to some of the shut-ins in the Concord area. A favor was made by Anita Gunson and was presented to each of the the shut-ins.

James Hancock's Jr. Club joined in with our club for this event. We had a total of 17. Everyone seemed to have gotten the Christmas spirit. Afterwards we went to Ann Evers home for refreshments.

The next meeting will be January 23. Family night at Sherwill Community Center with exhibits, dinner and program.

James Hancock will show slides and tell us about his trip to 4-H National Congress in Chicago. The dinner is planned for 7 o'clock but exhibits should come in at 6 o'clock.
